

Current Account Transfer Guide

Opening your Current Account

You can apply for your Current Account including Mastercard® debit card and overdraft:

- a) online, and
- b) at our offices

Joint accounts can only be opened by contacting our offices. Accounts for Members aged 16 and 17 years require parental consent.

A low-cost Current Account at €4 per month is just one of the many benefits of being a member of the Credit Union. You must be a member of the Credit Union to apply for a Current Account. You can become a member by opening a share (i.e. savings) account (once you hold the common bond of the Credit Union).

In common with other financial institutions, new members will be asked to provide proof of identity (e.g. passport, driving licence) and proof of address (e.g. utility bill, financial statement) to open the account and PPSN (e.g. salary slip, tax credits certificate) if applying for an overdraft facility. Existing members may be asked to provide updated documentation verifying this information. Details of the required documentation is available on our website or from our Staff who are always happy to answer your questions.

You can register for online access to your accounts on our website or in our offices. Free eStatements will be made available quarterly on your Current Account and you have the option of receiving a quarterly paper statement by post, for a charge.

Once your Current Account is opened it will take up to 10 business days to receive both your debit card and your PIN (personal identification number). If you are moving your day-to-day banking from another institution to the Credit Union, you have the option of closing your account with the other institution or keeping it open.

Balances held in your Current Account are eligible balances under the Deposit Guarantee Scheme¹.

Directing your salary and other payments to your Current Account

When your Current Account has been opened with the Credit Union, we will provide you with an account number called an IBAN (International Bank Account Number). You will need your IBAN for payment instructions to/from your Current Account.

Credit Union staff will guide you through the process of moving your salary and other regular payments to your new Current Account and setting up standing orders and completing new direct debit mandates for regular bill payments from your account.

Standing Orders are payments initiated by you from your Current Account. Direct debits are instructions where you have given service providers the authority to seek payment from your Current Account. You are solely responsible for setting up, amending and cancelling payment instructions.

¹ The Deposit Guarantee Scheme is administered by the Central Bank of Ireland and is funded by the institutions (including the Credit Union) covered by the scheme. The DGS protects eligible savings up to a limit of €100,000 per depositor per institution covered by the Scheme. For additional information on the Deposit Guarantee Scheme please refer to www.depositguarantee.ie.

Standing Order Payments

Check your existing Standing Order payment instructions on your old Current Account to make sure the details are correct and decide if you want to continue with those payments on your new Current Account. The Standing Orders on your new Current Account can be set up online or with the assistance of Credit Union staff. Make sure to cancel Standing Orders on your old account to avoid duplicate payments.

Direct Debit Payments

Direct Debits occur when you give service providers authority to request payments from your Current Account. You need to inform all service providers of any change in your account details so that future payment requests are directed to your new Current Account, bills are paid on time and there is no disruption to services. You can send a REQUEST TO YOUR FINANCIAL INSTITUTION for a schedule of all active Direct Debit instructions and Standing Orders operating on your old account. Alternatively, this information will be available to you online from your old Current Account provider or it can also be obtained from account statements. It may be necessary to look at account statements for the past year to identify annual recurring payments.

For Direct Debit payments you must send a REQUEST TO THE SERVICE PROVIDERS to each Company, with your new Current Account details, requesting them to set up a new collection for their payments. You must also contact your service provider (i.e. Direct Debit originator) to cancel Direct Debits which you are not moving to your new current account. You can do this online, where you have access to services online (e.g. utilities, telcos, subscriptions) or over the phone. Contact details, including telephone numbers and a Direct Debit mandate capturing the change in account details may also be available for download on the service provider's website. Be aware that it may take a number of days or weeks for service providers to act on your instructions or for changes to take effect.

If you have Direct Debits with any companies or organisations outside Ireland, you should contact them and inform them of your new Current Account details (see REQUEST TO INTERNATIONAL SERVICE PROVIDERS).

Overdraft Facility

An overdraft balance cannot be transferred from one institution to another. You may apply for an overdraft facility on your new Current Account on opening your account or subsequently. Overdraft applications are subject to credit assessment. You will be required to provide supporting documentation for your Overdraft application.

Best time to transfer Payments?

Choose a time of the month when there is little activity on your old Current Account in terms of bill payments. You need to keep an eye on your old and new Current Accounts until the transfer process is complete and to make sure each account has sufficient funds to meet any payment requests.

You should contact service providers (i.e. Direct Debit originators) with your new Current Account number as soon as possible to ensure that the account details are changed before bills are processed.

Closing your old current account

It is up to you to decide if you wish to close your old Current Account or keep it open. If you are closing your old Current Account, you must transfer any funds in the old current account, you should note the following:

- Bank Cards: Once your new Current Account is operational and you have your new debit card, you should destroy your old debit card.
- Fees and Charges: You should ensure your old Current Account has sufficient funds to meet any fees or charges that may be due.
- Cheques: Do not issue cheques on your old Current Account and wait for any cheques you have already written to be paid before closing your old account, otherwise they will be returned unpaid.

In Summary

- Make the transfer during a period of the month when there is least activity on your account.
- Send a request to your employer and other income sources to re-direct your salary and other regular income payments (e.g. pension, social welfare, child benefit, share dividends) to your new Current Account. (see REQUEST TO YOUR EMPLOYER, REQUEST TO INCOME SOURCES).
- Identify Standing Order and Direct Debit payments to be set up on your new Current Account. This information can be obtained by:
 - a) Asking your old financial institution to send you a schedule of all active Standing Orders and Direct Debits operating on your Current Account see REQUEST TO YOUR FINANCIAL INSTITUTION
 - b) Using online access to your old account to view Standing Orders and Direct Debits
 - c) Reviewing your financial institutions statements for the past twelve months to identify payments made by Standing Order and Direct Debits
- Make sure to contact companies that have linked recurring payments on your old debit card e.g. gyms, tolls, streaming services.
- Delete or cancel Standing Orders and Direct Debits on your old account if you are transferring them to your new Current Account.
- Inform all your service providers paid by Direct Debit (i.e. Direct Debit originators) of your new Current Account details see REQUEST TO SERVICE PROVIDERS, REQUEST TO INTERNATIONAL SERVICE PROVIDERS).
- Inform a service provider if you wish to cancel (rather than set up a payment on the new Current Account) a Direct Debit. See REQUEST TO SERVICE PROVIDERS to cancel an existing Direct Debit.
